From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners

This week, I want to express my thanks to Karen Proulx, our Youth Minister, for arranging a new retreat experience for our youth group. Last week, the group traveled to the Shrine of Our Lady of La Salette in Attleboro, Massachusetts for the "Steubenville East Youth Conference" The theme of the conference was "WITNESS." In addition to the inspirational talks, uplifting music, and personal witness of the presenters, Holy Mass was celebrated with opportunity for Eucharistic adoration and sacramental confession. The conference brought our young parishioners into contact with youth from across the country as well as priests, seminarians, and men and women religious. I hope that such events will be offered again and that many teens will participate! Thanks, Karen, and all who helped make such an event possible!

Last week, on the Memorial of Our Lady of Mount Carmel (July 16), our parish hosted a Mass and luncheon for the staff and volunteers of the Mount Carmel Guild. We collect non-perishable foods for the pantry of the Guild each week. Please consider bringing an item or two when coming to Mass. It is a small but important way we can help the Guild "feed the hungry."

This Saturday, July 26, is important for all grandparents! It is the feast of Saints Joachim and Ann, the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and grandparents of Our Lord. Our parish boasts a great number of grandparents and so I invite them to come to Mass at 8:00 am on Saturday to honor the greatest grandparents in history!

With affection
Msgr. Gervasio

Prayerful Best Wishes!

Our parish is the spiritual home of many members of the Haitian Community of the greater Trenton area. Weekly Mass in Creole is offered at St. Anthony Church on Sundays at 6:30 p.m. and on Wednesdays in the Chapel of the Diocesan Haitian Center. The Center is housed in the former convent at St. Anthony Campus on South Olden Avenue. It is a great instrument to assist the parish and diocese in ministering to our brothers and sisters who trace their birth and heritage to Haiti.

We offer many thanks to Sister Francis Paglione, R.S.M., who has served as Director of the Diocesan Haitian Office and who has also served as one of our parish catechists since the establishment of our parish in 2005. A few months ago, we were informed that Sister Frances has received a new assignment from her community and that she would conclude her service as Director effective July 1. We are indeed grateful to Sister for her dedication and love and accompany her with our prayers. May she continue to serve the Lord with joy!

At the same time, we are pleased to announce the appointment of Magda Dorleans as Director of the Haitian Office. Magda has worked in the office for the past four years and helped in the transition of the community from St. Francis Parish to our own. We offer our most sincere best wishes and prayers as she assumes this role of leadership. May the Lord bless all her efforts in the service of the Church.

Welcome!

We welcome these new parishioners and their families:

Fr. JC Goes to Washington

Wednesday I had a great honor. I was invited, at the request of Rep. Christopher Smith, NJ-4, to be the guest chaplain for the U.S. House of Representatives. While I had “floor privileges” for the entire day, my only real duty was to say the opening prayer, which follows, at the start of the session.

Opening Prayer
U.S. House of Representatives
July 16, 2008
Fr. John C. Garrett

“We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness.”
(Declaration of Independence)

God, Creator of Heaven and Earth,

The Founders of this Great Nation, recognized the basic principle that You are our Creator and we are Your noble, yet humble, creatures. As such, all men and women are loved and treasured by You. Send your blessings on the women and men of this honorable House, so that they will be guided by your Divine Law in their deliberations. Grant them the wisdom to seek the common good for all people. May all their actions demonstrate respect and reverence for all people; each made in Your Divine image and likeness. Let all this be done for Your greater glory. We ask this in Your Divine Name.

Amen.

How did I get selected for this honor? Well, it is a long story. I first met Chris Smith back in 1976. He was the Executive Director for New Jersey Right to Life, and was the campaign manager for a Pro-Life Democrat, Steve Foley, who was running in the primary for the U.S. Senate. My father was the Mercer County campaign manager for Mr. Foley. I was 12 at the time, and spent many an evening stuffing envelopes and other campaign type activities with Chris and his then girlfriend, Marie, whom he married. The Smiths became friends of my family. In 1978 Chris decided to switch parties and run for Congress, so my family was back into stuffing envelopes. He lost that election, but he ran again in 1980, and won. By that time I was a junior in high school, with an interest in politics and law. My father told me that when he went to Washington, D.C. on his high school senior trip he met a Congressional Page. When Congressman Smith was first elected, in 1980, during my junior year, I asked him about applying to become a Congressional Page. Right at the end of my junior year I found out that I had been selected, so I spent my senior year of high school as a Congressional Page in the U.S. House of Representatives. I was Congressman Smith’s first Page. It was a wonderful year, and I learned so much about the legislative process, and had a unique vantage point on moments of history.

My family continued to be friends with the Congressman and his family. My mother worked in his district office for nearly 20 years. Now my sister Jennifer works in his district office.

Wednesday actually started on Tuesday. After having a funeral here in the parish, I drove down to DC. A friend of my sister, Ann, from medical school is now a Jesuit priest teaching at Georgetown, and he was good enough to allow me to stay there. We had a great visit.

Wednesday morning I was to report to Congressman Smith’s office at 9:15 a.m. Not sure of Washington traffic, I left a little after 8 a.m. Parking was arranged for me at the Capitol. Of course there was a lot of security to go through. There was a pleasant surprise for me at Congressman Smith’s office—my sister Jennifer came down to work that day in the DC office. We were escorted to the Speaker’s Lobby (a room just off the House Floor), and I was told where I would stand and the procedure that would be followed. Mr. Oliver, the man in charge of the Pages on the Republican side when I was a Page, was there as were two of my other supervisors. Mr. Oliver retired a few months ago, and we had dinner later that evening with one of my Page School classmates. My sister was escorted to the gallery, and I waited on the dais for the Speaker to call the House to order. She then introduced me, and I said the prayer. After the Pledge of Allegiance, Speaker Pelosi invited me back to her office for pictures. My sister joined us. While I do not agree with the Speaker’s position on Life Issues (e.g., abortion, embryonic stem cell research, etc.), she was very pleasant to speak with. She asked me about what it was like to be back after 26 years, the parish I am assigned to, my friendship with Congressman Smith. After pictures Congressman Smith took me back to the House Floor where he gave a 1-minute speech about, well, me. Then it was back to his office for a nice visit. Eventually he, and my sister, needed to get to work.

I spent the afternoon at the Basilica Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, said Mass there for Deacon Joseph Malloy, and visited with a friend from the seminary. I met my Page School classmate and Mr. Oliver at “Chef Geoff’s Downtown” for a most delightful dinner. Then it was the long drive back to New Jersey. It was a very nice day.

Witness to our Faith in the Eucharist ...in the Summer too!

The Catechism teaches that "Bodily demeanor (gestures, clothing) ought to convey the respect, solemnity, and joy of the moment when Christ becomes our guest." (#1387) Dignified dress has a witness value to our brothers and sisters, sending the message that Mass is the most important part of my week. Let us be more reflective about the choices we make about Mass, avoiding attire meant for the beach and health club or gym! Think about it.

Special Religious Education

Our Lady of Fatima Education Center for special needs children will open the 2008-2009 school year on September 13 with 11:00 a.m. Mass in Our Lady of Sorrows Church, Hamilton.

The center provides religious instruction for children with any disability, which hinders learning in the regular religious education program.

Classes are held in Our Lady of Sorrows Church Library on Saturday mornings from 10:30 a.m. to noon. There is no charge for participating in this program.

Any parent interested in enrolling their child in the program (regardless of age) should call the coordinator, Dorothy Oliver, at 609-393-3897.

Memorial of Sts. Joachim and Ann

*Parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary,
Grandparents of Our Lord, "In Laws" of St. Joseph*

"A Feast Day for all Grandparents!"

The Church has always paid special attention to grandparents, recognizing them as a great treasure from both the human and social, as well as religious and spiritual, viewpoints. My venerable predecessors, Paul VI and John Paul II—we have just celebrated the third anniversary of the latter's death—emphasized on various occasions the Ecclesial Community's respect for the elderly, for their dedication and their spirituality. In particular, during the Jubilee of the Year 2000, John Paul II summoned the world's elderly to St Peter's Square in September and said on that occasion: "Despite the limitations brought on by age, I continue to enjoy life. For this I thank the Lord. It is wonderful to be able to give oneself to the very end for the sake of the Kingdom of God!". These words were contained in the Letter that about a year earlier, in October 1999, he had addressed to the elderly and which have preserved intact their human, social and cultural timeliness. In the past, grandparents had an important role in the life and growth of the family. Even with their advancing age they continued to be present with their children, their grandchildren and even their great-grandchildren, giving a living witness of caring, sacrifice and a daily gift of themselves without reserve. They were witnesses of a personal and community history that continued to live on in their memories and in their wisdom. Today, the economic and social evolution has brought profound transformations to the life of families. The elderly, including many grandparents, find themselves in a sort of "parking area": some realize they are a burden to their family and prefer to live alone or in retirement homes with all the consequences that such decisions entail.

Unfortunately, it seems that the "culture of death" is advancing on many fronts and is also threatening the season of old-age. With growing insistence, people are even proposing euthanasia as a solution for resolving certain difficult situations. Old age, with its problems that are also linked to the new family and social contexts because of modern development, should be evaluated carefully and always in the light of the truth about man, the family, and the community.

It is always necessary to react strongly to what dehumanizes society.

Thinking of grandparents, of their testimony of love and fidelity to life, reminds us of the Biblical figures of Abraham and Sarah, of Elizabeth and Zechariah, of Joachim and Anne, as well as of the elderly Simeon and Anna and even Nicodemus: they all remind us that at every age the Lord asks each one for the contribution of his or her own talents.
